Understated luxury

Our FERROVIA collection is an ode to the railways of the early twentieth century. Having often been used in first-class train carriages, this particular style of door handle is held up as a piece of understated luxury thanks to its elegant shapes, curves, and clean lines. The design is characterized by its spherical shape that connects the lever to its neck. The 'T-handle' was especially popular in train carriage design at the time, and is still a common design feature in many interiors and exteriors.

De FERROVIA collectie verwijst naar begin 20e eeuw, toen dit model deurkruk veel werd toegepast in eerste klas treinwagons in diverse West-Europese landen. Dankzij de elegante vormen, rondingen en strakke lijnen wordt deze bijzondere stijl als een stukje ingetogen luxe gezien. Het ontwerp kenmerkt zich door het bolvormige middelpunt, die de greep met de hals verbindt. Het verticale T-krukje was destijds erg in trek en is tot op de dag van vandaag nog steeds een veelvoorkomend detail in het ontwerp van vele interieurs en exterieurs.

“We must do more than create products that are functional and understandable. We need to develop products that also bring excitement, pleasure and fun, and – perhaps most importantly – beauty to people’s lives. FORMANI simply wants to make life a bit more beautiful.”

FERROVIA FVL100/48
polished stainless steel

New York, USA

A quiet counterpoint to classic architecture

FERROVIA reference: Penthouse Fifth Avenue

Interior design: Studio Piet Boon

Photography: Matthijs van Roon

On New York's Fifth Avenue, this penthouse combines classical architectural elements with a restrained contemporary interior. Historic detailing forms a structured backdrop, while proportion and precision keep the atmosphere calm and composed.

Within this architectural framework, the FERROVIA collection introduces a subtle softness. Its rounded geometry gently offsets the interior's linear language, supporting cohesion without drawing attention away from the architecture.

Dit penthouse aan Fifth Avenue in New York verenigt klassieke architectonische details met een ingetogen, hedendaags interieur. Historische elementen vormen een gestructureerde achtergrond, terwijl verhoudingen en precisie zorgen voor een rustige, beheerste sfeer.

Binnen dit architectonische kader brengt de FERROVIA-collectie een subtiele zachtheid. De afgeronde geometrie vormt een verfijnd tegenwicht binnen het lineaire lijnenspel en ondersteunt de samenhang, zonder de aandacht van de architectuur af te leiden.

View and clarity

FERROVIA reference: private residence

Interior design: Christian Anderson Architects

Photography: Simon Devitt

Product: FERROVIA FVT100/48 satin stainless steel

Overlooking Pasadena Bay, this residence is shaped by openness, proportion and expansive views. Water, light and architecture are brought together through a restrained approach that keeps the atmosphere calm and clear.

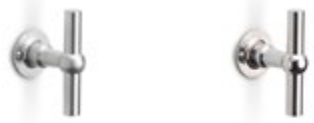

Within this setting, the FERROVIA collection supports the architectural language of the interior. Refined lines and controlled detailing reinforce the connection between the home and its natural surroundings.

Met uitzicht op Pasadena Bay wordt deze woning gekenmerkt door openheid, verhoudingen en weidse zichtlijnen. Water, licht en architectuur komen samen in een ingetogen benadering die zorgt voor rust en helderheid.

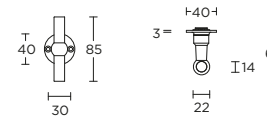

De FERROVIA-collectie ondersteunt hier de architectonische vormtaal van het interieur. Verfijnde lijnen en beheerste detaillering versterken de verbinding tussen de woning en haar natuurlijke omgeving.
